KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER
28th July 2019

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When asked how we should pray, Jesus teaches the Our Father ‘Lord teach us to pray.’ If someone asked this today of a faith leader, we might get a long list of possibilities based on different tastes, cultures and trends. Millions of books have been written on prayer, how to pray, what method, where, when, how to sit, what to wear, what attitude one should have, and so on. Yet here, Jesus gives his disciples a very direct response, actual words in a formula, that they should recite.

In Jesus’ time there were many rabbis who would have certain prayers for their followers to say, almost as a way of identifying their group. The Lord’s prayer is the prayer of Jesus’ disciples, so it is our prayer too. It is among the first prayers we learn as children. It is a prayer of identity for Christians. When we are in a moment of crisis, when all other words fail us, it is often the ‘go-to’ prayer.

After teaching the Lord’s prayer, Jesus tells a story about a man whose friend goes to him at midnight looking for bread for another friend. It might appear to be a confusing story, but the emphasis is on the power of praying for another’s need. In the early church and today, this is seen as the work of the people of God, the baptised: to pray for the world and the needs of others. Then we go beyond ourselves and our own interests, reaching out and opening up, rather than being closed in on ourselves. Ask, and it will be given you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Radiating Christ

Dear Jesus, help me to spread Your fragrance everywhere I go.

Flood my soul with Your spirit and life.

Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly,

That my life may only be a radiance of Yours. Shine through me, and be so in me

That every soul I come in contact with may feel Your presence in my soul.

Let them look up and see no longer me, but only Jesus!

Stay with me and then I shall begin to shine as You shine,

So to shine as to be a light to others;

The light, O Jesus will be all from You; none of it will be mine;

It will be you, shining on others through me.

Let me thus praise You the way You love best, by shining on those around me.

Let me preach You without preaching, not by words but by my example,

By the catching force of the sympathetic influence of what I do,

The evident fullness of the love my heart bears to You. Amen.

(Prayer of Cardinal Newman – Cardinal Newman will be canonised on 13th October 2019)
