KNOCKNINNY SUNDAY NEWSLETTER

10th November 2019

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prisoners' Sunday

'Children of the Resurrection'

In today's Gospel, the Sadducees are trying to trap Jesus, using a slightly exaggerated and absurd case about whose wife someone will be in heaven if they have married many times. They have no faith in the resurrection and therefore do not grasp that in a place of peace, justice and freedom, people cannot be 'owned' or 'given.' Questions like the one posed by the Sadducees ignore the radical freshness of the Kingdom of God. All we really can be sure of is that that place will be radically different to anything we know, a new creation.

We are all 'children of this world' who are called to be 'children of the resurrection.' You might recall today someone who has passed away, who is some sense, because of their influence on people, 'lives on' in the lives of those they touched. But they are 'children of the resurrection' not because of their own goodness, but because of the power of Christ to raise us from the dead.

Let us use this week to notice the moments of resurrection all around us. God's Kingdom is also here and now, if we allow ourselves to be present and aware to this ongoing 'new creation'.

'You were born a child of light's wonderful secret – you return to the beauty you have always been.'

Holy Souls

We Give Them Back to Thee, O God

We seem to give them back to thee, O God, who givest them to us.

Yet, as thou didst not lose them in the giving, so do we not lose them by their return.

Not as the world giveth thou, O Lover of souls. What thou givest, thou takest not away.

For what is thine is ours also, if we are thine. Life is eternal. Love is immortal.

Death is only an horizon and horizon is only the limit of the sight.

Lift us up, O Strong Son of God, that we may see further. Cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly. Draw us closer to thyself, that we may know ourselves to be nearer to our loved ones who are with thee. And while thou dost prepare a place for us, prepare us for that happy place that where thou art, we may be also forever. Amen
