FIFTH SUNDAY
In Lent

The clocks have gone back. More light in morning. We can hear the whisper of Spring. Give thanks and praise.

The goal of our life is to live with God forever. God, who loves us, gave us life. Our own response of love allows God's life to flow into us without limit. All the things in this world are gifts from God, presented to us so that we can know God more easily and make a return of love more readily. As a result, we appreciate and use all these gifts of God insofar as they help us to develop as loving people.

However, if any of these gifts become the centre of our lives, they displace God and so hinder our growth toward our goal. In everyday life, we must hold ourselves in balance before all of these created gifts. We should not fix our desires on health or sickness, wealth or poverty, success or failure, a long life or a short one. For everything has the potential of calling forth in us a deeper response to our life in God. In every circumstance, our only desire and our one choice should be this: I want and I choose what better leads to God's life deepening in me.

Prayer

*This day is God's gift to me.
I take it, Lord, from your hand and thank you for the wonder of it.
All that I am, Lord, I place into your hands
Everything I work for, I place into your hands
Everything I hope for, I place into your hands
The troubles that weary me, I place into your hands
The issues that concern me, I place into your hands
All that I pray for, I place into your hands.*
