Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Thy will be done...

Holy week has a lot of structure and "outer" practices. Traditionally we have the procession and drama of Palm Sunday and, on Holy Thursday, we remember the Last Supper. Then we have Good Friday with the three hours at the cross, and the emptiness of Holy Saturday with all the questions that the empty tomb poses. We can do all the "outer" things, but if they do not touch our hearts then we have wasted our time. To truly keep Holy Week is a demanding experience, but as with all of Lent, the more you seek to protect and insulate yourself from it, the less you will be able to enter into it. So, open up, and let it all – pain and joy – sink in.

Palm Sunday

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." Luke 19:38

We begin Holy Week in celebration with Jesus being welcomed into Jerusalem with great joy and exultation! "Hosanna!" they cried out. "Hosanna in the Highest!" Jesus was treated as He should have been treated. People were excited to see Him and there was much excitement.

Let this week give us hope. So often we can be tempted toward discouragement and, even worse, we can be tempted toward despair. Nothing can ultimately steal away our joy unless we let it. No hardship and no burden can conquer us if we remain steadfast in Christ Jesus, letting Him transform all we endure in life by His gift to us this Easter.

Year of Vocations: A year of prayer for vocations to the diocesan priesthood commences on 30 April. As part of the preparation the diocese invites you to share a memory of a priest who inspired you or supported you during a significant moment in your life. These memories will be shared in an edited version on the diocesan website as a way of encouraging young people to see the value in the role of a diocesan priest. Personal details will be kept anonymous on request. Please submit your memory in 300 words or less to bailieboro2@kilmorediocese.ie or by post to the diocesan vocations director: Fr Ultan McGoohan, Parochial House, Chapel Rd, Bailieborough, Co. Cavan. A82 PY57. Deadline for submissions is Vocations Sunday, 30 April.

Prayer

As I enter into this Holy Week, enable me to walk with You and offer my own life as a sacrifice in union with Your own perfect Sacrifice. May Your Holy Week transcend time and permeate every aspect of my life so that, as I die with You, I may also share in the glory of Your Resurrection. Jesus, I trust in You.
