Appeal: Over the last year, the Parish has been compiling the history of Derrylin & Teemore. We have information about these areas dating from the year 1636 up to the present day. We hope to put up some visual displays for people to view and we kindly ask that if anyone has any photos to share them with us, please. Photographs can be of people, families, homes and gardens, buildings/businesses (cinemas, pubs, hotels, butchers, shops, salons etc), Churches, club and society pictures or general views of Derrylin & Teemore over the years. Hopefully, this will become a treasured resource for people not only now, but in the future, and serve as a reminder to us all how things used to be in times gone by. Photos can be given to Fiona in the Parish Office or emailed to secretary@knockninnyparish.com All photos will be immediately scanned & returned.

Sew, Knit & Crochet: It's that time of year again...how do you intend on spending the long evenings? If you are at a loose end, come & join us at Clachan Court on Thursdays 2-4pm to sew, knit or crochet and enjoy a cup of tea & chat. Everyone welcome

Aughakillymaude Community Centre: In March, a public meeting was held in the Centre to discuss how people who live in the wider Derrylin community thought about reconciliation in NI and to identify "Indicators" of reconciliation in their lives. The meeting was facilitated by Dr Grainne Kelly, University of Ulster. On Tuesday 12th Sept at 7.30pm in the Centre, Dr Kelly will return to share her findings and research on this most important subject. We encourage people from all areas to come along.

Knockninny Credit Union Ltd are delighted to announce our extended opening hours: Tuesday 11.30am – 4pm, Wednesday 11.30am – 7pm, Thursday 11.30am – 4 pm, Friday 11.30am-7pm

Prayer for Patience as a Neighbour

Dear Lord in heaven,

I pray for my neighbourhood.

I ask that you give me the strength and patience to be a good neighbour.

Help me be understanding and loving towards everyone.

Let them be drawn to your love through me.

Let my actions attract my neighbours to you.

Help me resist unnecessary feuds and fights that will tarnish my reputation.

Let me meet those who hate me with love.

Open my heart to be gracious and gentle in my dealings with them.

Let our families exist in harmony and peace forever.

Amen
