Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

13th July 2025

The great virtue of charity is put before us today. It is the virtue by which we love God above all things for his own sake, and our neighbour as ourselves for the love of God. This is the new commandment of Jesus. He tells us to love one another as he loved us. The story of the Good Samaritan is to show us that that is a virtue well within our reach.

The Good Samaritan didn't just offer a passing prayer or a kind word. He stopped, he gave, he sacrificed his time, his resources, his comfort.

He didn't ask whether the wounded man was deserving, or whether it was convenient. He saw suffering and answered with mercy.

That is our call too...Let's not wait until it's convenient to show mercy. Let's be people who see, who stop, who love. Who is God calling you to serve today?

Loving God,

Open our eyes to see those in need,

And move our hearts to act with mercy.

Help us to cross the road and stand with those who are excluded.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.
