Heavenly Father,

Thank You for seeing us through March, and thank You for April.

Whether I see just one day or a whole month's worth, help me value the gift of life You have given and make the most of each moment.

In a world that can often be hectic, noisy, and distracting, help me draw closer to You; help me love, know, and serve You better.

May my words and deeds reflect the faith I profess.

Help me to love, pray, forgive, and serve more.

Help me to be more generous with my time, love, and resources.

Should I meet unexpected trials and tribulations, give me the wisdom and strength to persevere and recognize and give You thanks and praise for helping me become who You will me to be.

Father, I commit this new day and this new month to You.

Come what may, may You be honoured and glorified.

In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

Second Sunday of Easter

12th April 2026

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Blessed John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

Divine Mercy Prayer

God, merciful Father, in your Son, Jesus Christ, You have revealed your love and poured it out upon us in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter.

We entrust to You today the destiny of the world and of every man and woman.

Bend down to us sinners, heal our weakness, conquer all evil, and grant that all the peoples of the earth may experience Your mercy.

Eternal Father, by the Passion and Resurrection of Your Son, have mercy on us and upon the whole world! Amen.
