Did you know? In November 1968, tobacco growing was beginning to gain momentum in the local area. Earlier that year, Tom Maguire of Corraveigha had been reported as the only person in County Fermanagh to grow tobacco.
However, by November, the crop was also being grown in Teemore. Derek Latimer and Lieutenant Colonel George Saunderson had joined forces to cultivate 300 tobacco plants on Derek's farm in Gortgorgan. Also, in Gortgorgan, Freddie Graham was growing a further 70 plants.
